DUTCH HARBOR, ALASKA, USA

MANY OUTDOOR ACTIVITIES LIKE HIKING, SPORTFISHING, KAYAKING, AND BIRDING

With Bald Eagles soaring overhead, emerald-green volcanic peaks chafing the clouds, and raw ocean scenery as far as the eye can see, this far-flung destination is the definition of remote and wild.

Part of the outlying Aleutian Islands archipelago, which spirals out across the Bering Sea into the wilds of the Pacific, Dutch Harbor offers a dramatic backdrop and rich military history – as one of the few pieces of US soil to be directly attacked by the Japanese during World War II. The town settles into the embrace of a vast deepwater harbour, which helps to protect from the unpredictable churn of the Bering Sea.

Enjoy hikes along coastal trails to birdwatch among more than 100 different species – and look on as huge clouds of cawing seabirds float on gusts of wind, filling the air with their raucous calls. Dutch Harbor is famous for its crab fishing industry – a dangerous, challenging pursuit – and the town is well known to many Americans as the setting of the television show Deadliest Catch.

The Aleutian WWII Visitor Center and the Museum of the Aleutians provide extensive information on WWII in the Aleutians, prehistory, the Russian period, Unangan (Aleut) culture and recent history. A visible reminder of the Russian past is the Holy Ascension Cathedral, the oldest cruciform-style Russian Orthodox church in North America and a National Historic Landmark (On 7th May closed for Russian Orthodox Easter Services).

SIGHTS

- Russian Orthodox Cathedral of the Holy Ascension of Christ
- Fort Schwatka on Mt Ballyhoo
- Bunker Hill
- Aleutian World War II National Historic Area

THE MUSEUM OF THE ALEUTIANS (MOTA)

A must-see when you are in the area is the Museum of the Aleutians (MOTA) which is filled with tangible history of the region from records of early inhabitants dating back nearly 10,000 years ago up to the forced evacuation of the Indigenous Unangax people during World War II.

The MOTA gift shop is a fantastic spot to pick up your Unalaska souvenirs!

TOMORROW: BOAT BUILDING JUDGEMENT DAY

▶ 3...2...1... THE COUNTDOWN IS ON!

8th May – Boat Building Judging

Tomorrow, we call all our boat builders to launch their 'Sea-Worthy' boats as the judging begins. The boats have to undergo trials and challenges in order to be crowned the Silver Shadow champion. Each boat will be tested on overall creativity of design and presentation, ability to float un-assisted in the pool, how far it can travel in a single push across the pool with no cargo, and then on how much cargo (12oz. cans) it can hold. The winner will be the boat that has the most total points from each category. Be as creative as you want in your presentation and design, and most importantly, HAVE FUN! For questions, please contact your Cruise Director Moss or your International Hostesses in the Cruise Director Office on Deck 5.

We are looking forward to seeing your final Boats!

FACE-TO-FACE INSPECTION IN DUTCH HARBOR, ALASKA, UNITED STATES OF AMERICA

A mandatory face-to-face inspection for ALL GUESTS will take place shortly after our arrival in Dutch Harbor, Alaska. This inspection will take place on board in The Show Lounge, Deck 5 from approximately 8:15 a.m. onwards. So, please carry your customs declaration (one per family) duly completed and signed for the inspection. Your passport will be handed to you at the entrance of The Show Lounge before approaching the inspection desk, and once the US CBP Officer is ready to receive you. After being processed by the CBP Officer, you are cleared and can proceed ashore carrying your suite key card, plus any government issued photo ID, and these will be the only form of ID you will need to carry with you when going ashore in all US ports.

Due to the remote location of the port, we have only one US CBP Officer attending the ship for clearance, therefore we thank you in advance for your patience and cooperation in completing the mandatory inspection. We'll make announcements by PA system indicating when you should proceed to the inspection, so please listen carefully to the announcements.

DUTY FREE ALLOWANCE

U.S. residents have a duty free allowance of $800 per person. We as a carrier are required to submit a report of our on-board sales to CBP on arrival. Therefore, please note, that upon your final disembarkation in US, CBP officers may question guests found to have exceeded their allowance.

HAND WASHING & HAND SANITIZING

Keeping hands clean through improved hand hygiene is one of the most important steps we can take to avoid getting sick and spreading germs to others. Many diseases and conditions are spread by not washing hands with soap and clean, running water. Alcohol-based hand sanitizers can quickly reduce the number of germs on hands.

ALL ABOARD
1:30 P.M.

Please note this useful information when going ashore.
