ROU-001 / S.A.L.T. Canard à la Rouennaise: A Culinary Spectacle 4.00 Hours | $469

In Rouen, there is no recipe more local than the Canard à la Rouennaise (Rouen-Style Duck). Historically called "Caneton à la Duclair" (Duclair-style duckling), is dating back to the XIX century, created by Henri Denise, owner of an hôtel restaurant in the small village of Duclair, located 30 minutes away from Rouen, along the Seine River.

DECK 5 EXT. 551
OPENING HOURS:
9:00 A.M. - 12:00 P.M. | 4:00 P.M. - 7:00 P.M.

ROUEN, FRANCE

A taste of living life a la Francaise

Oh la la! Prepare yourself for a taste of living life a la Francaise in Rouen. Gothic architecture and history at every turn? Wide, leafy squares and timbered Norman houses? Enough French food that will keep your stomach full and tastebuds happy for hours? Yes, Rouen is all that and more. Set on the banks of the Seine and less than two hours from Paris, Rouen is about as French as you can get.

The city's roots go back to the 10th century when Vikings and Romans laid claim to the city. If you think that the cathedral looks familiar that is probably because Rouen's most famous resident Claude Monet painted the city in his many canvases. But well before the impressionist painter immortalized Rouen with his beautiful brushwork, the city was host to many other famous faces. William the Conqueror, Richard the Lionheart, Joan of Arc - take your pick. While the others may have left their hearts metaphorically, Joan actually did leave hers on a funeral pyre in 1431.

A museum of the Roman Catholic Saint opened in 2015. Touring the city by foot is by far the best way to discover the riches of Rouen. The emblematic Gros Horloge (Big Clock) is by far the city's number one must-see but with gothic churches and streets at every turn, every sight is a marvel. If you get bored of strolling the cobbled streets, head for the ceramic museum, in the Hôtel d'Hocqueville, for a wonderful collection of Sèvres porcelain. The elegant seaside resort of Deauville, as well as the D-Day beaches, are just a short drive away.

SIGHTS

- Notre-Dame Cathedral
- The Gros Horloge
- Historial Jeanne d'Arc
- A stroll along the River Seine
- The Quartier Libre
- Panorama Sainte-Catherine
- Church of St Joan of Arc
- Rue Saint-Romain

SHOPPING

There are plenty of restaurants in the historic downtown and around the Church of St Joan of Arc, but interesting finds await in alleys outside of the immediate city centre. The area is renowned worldwide for its apples, cider, pears, and dairy products like cheese and milk. Must try the apple brandy Calvados, one of the local specialities. Also, some of the best lamb, duck, and poultry in the whole world can be found here.

Shopping in Rouen is a dream for all art enthusiasts. The city offers numerous antique shops, art galleries and markets. On and around Rue Saint-Romain, right in the centre of the city, you can find many high street and local shops and boutiques.

At Silversea Cruises, we take maximum food precautionary measures to ensure the safest quality product is offered to our guests; Worldwide Public Health Services advise that consuming raw or undercooked meats, seafood, shellfish, eggs, milk, or poultry may increase your risk of food-borne illness, especially if you have certain medical conditions.

HAND WASHING & HAND SANITIZING

Keeping hands clean through improved hand hygiene is one of the most important steps we can take to avoid getting sick and spreading germs to others. Many diseases and conditions are spread by not washing hands with soap and clean running water. Alcohol-based hand sanitizers can quickly reduce the number of germs on hands. Please use the hand sanitizers situated at the entrance door of the dining outlets and various locations around the ship.
