Les petits Cannelés

"Les petits Cannelés", as French people call them, are a traditional pastry from Bordeaux. They are small, cylindrical cakes with a caramelized crust and a soft, custard-like center. They were originally created by nuns in the 18th century, who used leftover egg yolks from wine-making to make the batter (egg white was used to precipitate the suspended matter in the wine and clarify it). Traditionally, they are cooked in copper molds, which give them their distinctive shape and crispy exterior. The name "cannelé" comes from the French word for "fluted," which describes the shape of the pastry.

Cannelés are traditionally served as a dessert or as a snack with coffee, but they can also be served with savory dishes like foie gras or cheese.

A well-kept secret, there are as many recipes as there are bakers in Bordeaux even though in 1985, a group of Bordeaux bakers formed the "Brotherhood of the Cannelé," which promotes and preserves the traditional recipe and method of making cannelés. In 2013, "les petits cannelés" were awarded protected geographical indication (PGI) status by the European Union, recognizing them as a traditional and authentic product of the Bordeaux region.

The best way to discover it is of course to taste it. Many bakers even sell them in gift boxes to take home.

HAND WASHING & HAND SANITIZING

Keeping hands clean through improved hand hygiene is one of the most important steps we can take to avoid getting sick and spreading germs to others. Many diseases and conditions are spread by not washing hands with soap and clean, running water. Alcohol-based hand sanitizers can quickly reduce the number of germs on hands. Please use the hand sanitizers situated at the entrance door of the dining outlets and various locations around the ship.
