Discover the unique methods utilised in the farming and processing of oysters during this half-day tour and tasting at a Cancale oyster farm. The town has built a reputation due to the oyster beds that are along the coast and around the harbour at Cancale and is best known as being the oyster capital of Brittany. Cancale oysters have been famous for at least 2000 years since the days when they were eaten by the soldiers of Julius Caesar and later when they were delivered daily to Louis XIV.

BORDEAUX, FRANCE

Bordeaux's history

Bordeaux's history begins in antiquity, as Burdigala, when it served as a trading post for the Celts. The Romans arrived in the first century AD and constructed a tiny port that made it easier to ship commodities and -already- wine to other parts of Europe.

The development of Bordeaux as a significant commercial hub occurred during the Middle Ages. It developed as a hub for cross-border trade with England, Spain, and other European nations. Wine trade and the expansion of the port helped the city grow. In the 12th and 13th centuries, the wine trade in Europe became more significant, and by the 14th century, Bordeaux had emerged as the continent's principal hub.

Bordeaux maintained its prosperity throughout the 17th and 18th centuries as a result of its advantageous location, the expansion of its port, and the expansion of its wine industry. Moreover, the city developed into a hub for the exchange of ideas and culture, drawing philosophers, authors, and creatives.

Bordeaux witnessed tremendous changes in the 19th century as a result of the Industrial Revolution. The city's economy expanded, and it developed into a hub for business, trade, and industry. The city kept expanding in the 20th century and developed into a significant hub for the aviation and aeronautical sectors.

HAND WASHING & HAND SANITIZING

Keeping hands clean through improved hand hygiene is one of the most important steps we can take to avoid getting sick and spreading germs to others. Many diseases and conditions are spread by not washing hands with soap and clean, running water. Alcohol-based hand sanitizers can quickly reduce the number of germs on hands. Please use the hand sanitizers situated at the entrance door of the dining outlets and various locations around the ship.
