BGO-012 / Bergen During WWII 6.50 Hours | $229

OSLO, NORWAY

Museum of Modern Art

Norway's capital is a beautiful stirring city - where old and new blends with thoughtful harmony. You'll find maritime history mixing with trendy art galleries and cafes while modernist architecture meets traditional palaces and historic sites. Unafraid to reinvent and evolve visit a former prison that's now a stylish gathering of galleries or the grubby docklands that is now an urban-cool hangout spot. Ever-expanding but with a green and progressive outlook Oslo is urban planning done right. An outdoor city where the sun shines until late in the summer locals swarm to its green spaces or the surrounding countryside to embark on natural adventures amid the sprawling mountains and lakes.

Oslo City Hall pays tribute to the pioneers of peace and humanity with the Nobel Peace Prize awarded here each year and the winners honoured within. The beautiful Royal Palace caps the central Slottsplassen square and sparkles amid splashing fountains and peaceful gardens. The city's contemporary buildings also gleam in summer's sunshine with the waterside Opera House boasting a particularly evocative forward-thinking design.

Its sleek white roof slopes gently upwards from ground level inviting visitors to rise above and admire views of the island-sprinkled harbour. Oslofjord's islands are stacked with more museums celebrating everything from simple folk arts to adventurous seafaring traditions. See a mighty wooden Viking ship in full with 800 years worth of history etched into its wooden boughs.
