PENNESHAW, KANGAROO ISLAND, AUSTRALIA

Gateway to Kangaroo Island's Natural Wonders

Kangaroo Island is with 1,740 square miles the third largest island off the coast of Australia. It is 96 miles long and 34 miles wide, and known for its outstanding natural beauty. Due to its remote location, Kangaroo Island was less affected than the mainland by the impact of European development. To this day, the island is rich in diverse flora and fauna seldom found elsewhere. As one of the world's last unspoiled wilderness places, about 30 percent of the island has been designated as National Parks. The most important one is Flinders Chase at the western end of Kangaroo Island, with Seal Bay Conservation Park following close behind. Its large sandy beach and dune area is home to Australian sea lions where they come to rest and nurse their young. Kingscote, formerly known as Queenscliffe, is the largest town on the island and its main supply depot. Tourism is a significant element in the local economy. A mix of attractive small townships, wildlife sanctuaries and fascinating wilderness areas guarantee a steady stream of visitors each year.

Hog Bay Beach

Hog Bay Beach is a stunning stretch of white sand framed by turquoise waters, perfect for swimming, sunbathing, and leisurely strolls. Its calm shoreline offers a serene escape, while lucky visitors may spot playful dolphins gliding nearby. A favorite for families and nature lovers, this beach captures the essence of Kangaroo Island's coastal beauty.

Frenchman's Rock

Frenchman's Rock stands as a historic tribute to French explorer Nicolas Baudin's 1803 landing, etched with inscriptions that tell a story of early maritime exploration. Surrounded by rugged coastline and sweeping ocean views, this landmark offers a peaceful spot for reflection and photography, blending cultural heritage with the natural splendor of Kangaroo Island.

SAVE THE WAVES

Keeping hands clean through improved hand hygiene is one of the most important steps we can take to avoid getting sick and spreading germs to others. Many diseases and conditions are spread by not washing hands with soap and clean, running water. Alcohol-based hand sanitizers can quickly reduce the number of germs on hands. Please use the hand sanitizers situated at the entrance door of the dining outlets and various locations around the ship.
