BUSSELTON, AUSTRALIA

Gateway to Geographe Bay and the Margaret River Region

Bordering the Indian Ocean, Geographe Bay's Busselton enjoys a Mediterranean-style climate. The region boasts national parks, towering forests, limestone caves, historic lighthouses, and some of Australia's best surfing beaches. Other attractions include wineries and microbreweries in the Margaret River wine region to the south. Busselton's iconic jetty—over 1.8 km long, the Southern Hemisphere's longest wooden jetty—features an Underwater Observatory descending 8 meters to the ocean floor via a spiral staircase, revealing tropical and sub-tropical corals, sponges, fish, and invertebrates. Visitors can also enjoy whale-watching cruises, scenic cycling trails, pristine beaches, and family-friendly foreshore parks. Seasonal events, art galleries, and local markets add cultural charm, making Busselton a perfect blend of nature, adventure, and coastal lifestyle.

Busselton Jetty

Stretching 1.8 kilometers into Geographe Bay, Busselton Jetty is the longest timber-piled jetty in the Southern Hemisphere. It offers a scenic train ride, a relaxing walk over turquoise waters, and the famous Underwater Observatory, where visitors descend eight meters below the ocean to view vibrant corals, sponges, and marine life in their natural habitat.
